Numb. 209.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Thurſday, JANUARY 19, to Thurſday, JANUARY 26, 1738.

CHOCZIM, October 20. O. S.

THE Seraskier Baſhaw of Bender having received Orders from the Grand Signior, to diſpoſe every Thing for undertaking of the Siege of Oczakow as ſoon as poſſible, the 29th of laſt Month the Baſhaw reviewed the Troops deſign'd for that Siege, conſiſting of 30,000 Men, among which there are 20,000 Janiſſaries; the 30th of the ſame Month, thoſe Troops began to file off towards Oczakow, and the reſt took the ſame Route the following Days. The Grand Signior being willing to give Count Bonneval an Opportunity of ſhewing his Skill in the Art of War, his Highneſs has charged him with the Siege of that Town. The 4th Inſt. that General arrived at Bender with a numerous Retinue, and was received under a general Diſcharge of the Cannon of that Place; the Baſhaw came out to meet him, and conducted him to the Caſtle; the Garriſon lined the Streets thro' which the Count paſſed, and a vaſt Crowd of People, by their Acclamations, proclaim'd the great Idea they have conceived of him: Since his Arrival at Bender, he has been buſy in giving Orders about conveying the Artillery and Proviſions to Oczakow. Amongſt the Troops which are to be employed in the Siege of that Place, the Count deſigns to make Uſe of the Regiment and the Body of the Artillery Men which he has eſtabliſhed upon the European Footing. All the Officers who are to command under him at this Siege, have received Orders to obey him punctually under the Pain of Death. That General flatters himſelf with the Hopes of retaking Oczakow in a ſhort Time, and depends as much upon the Ardour of the Troops, as upon their Affection and the Confidence they repoſe in his Capacity.

LONDON, Nov 24.

A new Vault is making in King Henry the VIIth's Chapel in Weſtminſter-Abbey, by Mr. Jones the Abbey-Bricklayer, which is to be for the Uſe of the preſent Royal Family, the other two Vaults being full; and the two Princes, her late Majeſty's Children, will be taken out of the other Vault, where they now are, and depoſited in this with her Majeſty.

'Tis talked the Corpſe of her Majeſty will be ſoon carried from St. James's to the Room in which were his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales robes, near the Houſe of Lords.

We hear, that a Table will be kept for the Maids of Honour belonging to her late Majeſty till Chriſtmaſs, and that a Year's Salary from her Majeſty's Death, will be paid each of them; likewiſe the Sum of 3000 l. each, being the Fortune allowed at their Marriage by the Queens of England.

Letters from Spain mention, that two Engliſh Ships were lately taken by the Spaniards, one bound from Gibraltar to Algier, and the other from the Coaſt of Barbary to Tunis, and carried into Malaga, under Pretence of having Moors and Mooriſh Effects on board.

There was lately found, in cleaning a Fiſh-pond at Abington in Berkſhire, belonging to Mr. Tomkins of that Town, a Tea-Canifter full of Guineas; but the Workmen quarelling about dividing the Money, one of them diſcovered it to Mr. Tomkins, who took it into his own Cuſtody, ſince which it appears that the aboveſaid Gentleman's Father was robbed of 800 Guineas about 15 Years ago, and his Coachman committed to Abington Jail on Suſpicion of having committed the Fact, from whence he made his Eſcape, and has never been heard of ſince; ſo that this is ſuppoſed to be the ſame Money.

Laſt Week a Cart loaded with wrought Plate was ſent from Mr. Hopkins's Goldſmith in Fleet-ſtreet, and deliver'd at the Cuſtom Houſe, for Edward Trelawney, Eſq; Governor of Jamaica, from whence 'twas conjectur'd that his Excellency was juſt on his Departure, but it's now generally thought his Marriage will retard it 'till after Chriſtmaſs.

Advices from the Havanna, dated the End of Auguſt laſt ſay, that the Intention of the Spaniards to invade Carolina and Georgia was then no longer kept ſecret; that a Regiment was arriv'd from Old Spain, and another daily expected; and they alſo expected a great Body of Troops from Mexico; and that the Garriſon of Auguſtine had been ſome time before conſiderably augmented.

We hear from Bath, that on Sunday laſt, the Rev. Dr. Stephenſon of that City, preached a Funeral Sermon for Mrs. Mary Palmer, who died on Lanſdown the Friday before, aged One Hundred and ſix Years; many Perſons of Character and Diſtinction frequently viſited her, to hear the Relations ſhe would give them, her Memory continuing very ſtrong, as well as her Sight, to the laſt; ſhe being able to read the ſmalleſt Print. It's remarkable that the Age of this Woman (106) of her Son (80) and his Wife (88) amounted to above two Hundred and ſeventy Years; there are Great Grand Children of the Son and Daughter, which are arrived to be Men and Women. She lived at Lanſdown when the Battle was fought between the Forces of King Charles the Firſt and the Rebels, and was by Sir Bevil Granville when he died.

Yeſterday Morning as ſome Butchers were driving an Ox belonging to Mr. Kemp of Newport-Market, from Smithfields, and hurrying him too faſt, he toſs'd five Men and a Woman in Holbourn, then ran with great Fury along St. Giles's, and into Rathbourne Place, where finding a Door open belonging to Mr. Pantillo's Houſe he walk'd into the Back Parlour, where Mr. Pantillo, with a Child on his Knee, and a young Gentleman were drinking of Tea: At the Sight of the Ox, Mr. Pantillo had the Preſence of Mind to throw the Child under the Bed, and threw himſelf upon the Bed, and the Bullock jump'd upon him, which breaking down the Sacking of the Bed, Mr. Pantillo received little Damage, but got the Child from under the Bed, and carried it out of the Room. The Ox diſ entangling himſelf from the Bed Cords, &c. made at the young Man and gored him in the Breaſt; then ſeeing his Shadow in the Chimney Glaſs, he broke the ſame, Chairs, Tables, &c. all to Pieces. Then he walked out the Dining-Room, where he left nothing whole: Upon which they attempted to shoot him, but upon the second Fire he forced himself out of a Window, carrying the Frame, Glass, &c. with him into the Area; where he at first met with a Rack of Bottles, which he toss'd about till he had broke them all; then went to the Kitchen Windows, which he served after the same Manner, and being confined to close Quarters, went into the Vault, where he was shot to Death by the Owner

PHILADELPHIA, December 1.

We are desired to insert the following SPEECH of the D—e of A——ll, on occasion of a late famous Bill brought into Parl——t.

The L- d Ch———r seeming to reflect on his G—e, he spoke thus:

MY LORD,

This fills me with the greatest Astonishment and Surprize, especially, seeing I have always had the greatest Veneration for his Majesty's Person and Merit, and given no cause for Insinuations. I appeal to this honourable House, to the whole Nation, and my own Conscience, whether in Justice they can brand me with the Title of Jobber, or Party-Man; am I a Buyer of Borroughs, an Election Briber, or a Tool in any respect? No, my Lord, I scorn the Name, and wou'd suffer the greatest Indignities, rather than be an Hireling in the most exalted Station. Consider my past Life, examine my Actions, either in the Field or Council, and see whether any thing will appear that can sully my Reputation or Honour. I have serv'd his Majesty with my Sword, Interest and Council, and, tho' stript of all Employments, am ready again to risque my Life and Fortune in his Service: I have experienced both the Smiles and Frowns of a Court, and am determined to walk according to Truth alone, I have prepared myself with an equal Indifference for either. I have already given my Reasons, for opposing this Bill, which I think are self evident, and have plainly made it appear, that it is contrary to the express Articles of the Union, the Good of the Community, and the Interest of the Kingdom in general. And shall the Metropolis of Scotland, the Residence of such an Illustrious Race of Kings, who have made it their Glory to dignify this noble City, shall such a Place as this (I say) for the Fault of some unknown Offenders, be robbed of its most valuable Privileges, its Guards and Gates, and Scotch Man calmly behold the Havock! I glory, my Lord, in opposing so rigorous a Proceeding, and reckon it my greatest Glory to stand up in Defence of my Native Country, while it is thus exposed to Shame and Infamy.
